COMPETITION STRUCTURE SPECIFICATIONS

RULE 15 COMPETITION STRUCTURE

15.1. APB World Level - Regular Cycle

- 15.1.1. There will be one hundred and thirty (130) Boxers in total at the World Level.
- 15.1.2. Boxers will be divided into three (3) Tiers of four (4) Boxers: positions from one (1) to four (4), positions from five (5) to eight (8), positions from nine (9) to twelve (12), plus the Champion who is not part of these groups.
- 15.1.3. The highest ranked Boxer will fight against the lowest ranked Boxer within the Tier (Initial Bout). The two Boxers ranked in the middle of the Tier will fight against each other. The winners of these two first Bouts will fight against each other (Finals A); as well as the losers of the two first Bouts will fight against each other (Finals B).
- 15.1.4. For the Tier 1 (ranked 1 to 4), the winner of the Finals A will become the Official Challenger to the Champion.
- 15.1.5. At the end of each APB Cycle, the record of wins and losses of each Boxer will be considered to establish the next Cycle ranking. The ranking positioning will be defined in the following order.
  - 15.1.5.1. The Winner of the Title Bout will be declared Champion; and the loser of the Title Bout goes to position number one (1);
  - 15.1.5.2. In Tier 1, the Loser of the Finals A of the group of Boxers positioned from one (1) to four (4) will go to position number three (3);
  - 15.1.5.3. In Tier 2, Boxers who have two (2) wins and no loss will go up to position number two (2) of Tier 1;
  - 15.1.5.4. In Tier 3, Boxer who has two (2) wins and no loss will go up to position number five (5) of Tier 2
  - 15.1.5.5. Boxers who have one (1) win followed by one (1) loss, will take the third position in their initial groups – positions seven (7) and twelve (12);
  - 15.1.5.6. In Tier 1, Boxers who have one (1) loss followed by one (1) win will take positions six (6) of Tier 2;
  - 15.1.5.7. In Tier 2, Boxers who have one (1) loss followed by one (1) win will take positions ten (10) of Tier 3;
  - 15.1.5.8. In Tier 3, Boxer who has one (1) loss followed by one (1) win within the last group will go down to Continental Level.

- 15.1.6. Principle of moving down to Continental Level
  - 15.1.6.1. In Tier 1, Boxers who have two (2) losses will go down to position four (4) at their Continental Level in the next Cycle ranking;
  - 15.1.6.2. In Tier 2, Boxers who have two (2) losses will go down to position eight (8) at their Continental Level in the next Cycle ranking;
  - 15.1.6.3. In Tier 3, Boxers who have one (1) loss followed by one (1) win will go to position nine (9) at their Continental Level in the next Cycle ranking;
  - 15.1.6.4. In Tier 3, Boxers who have two (2) losses will go to position eleven (11) at their Continental Level in the next Cycle ranking.
- 15.1.7. At the end of each Cycle, four positions (numbers 4, 8, 9, 11) will be vacant for the inclusion of four (4) new Continental Champions. For this inclusion, an Intercontinental Championships will be organized to define the position of each Continental Champion in the World Ranking as explained in APB Competition Rule 15.2.2.1.
- 15.1.8. In order to define transparent ranking and competition structure for the first regular Cycle, three development stages of competition will take place as described in Appendix B.
- 15.1.9. Bouts Location
  - 15.1.9.1. AIBA will only authorize and certify Bouts held in those locations where the APB Rules are respected;
  - 15.1.9.2. The World and Continental Titles Bouts must be held in a Venue designated by BMA with the approval of AIBA.

The table below shows the mechanism for the World Level:

Tier 2

Tier 3

15.2. APB Continental Level

15.2.1. APB Continental Level will be organized with the same format as APB World Individual Ranking Competition.

15.2.2. Principle of moving up to World Level

15.2.2.1. APB rewards boxers who become Continental Champions by elevating them into the world level rankings;

15.2.2.2. An Intercontinental Championship will be organized to define the ranking of the Continental Champions in the following Cycle of the APB World Individual Ranking Competition;

15.2.2.3. All four (4) Continental Champions will be randomly drawn.

15.2.3. Principle of moving down to National Level

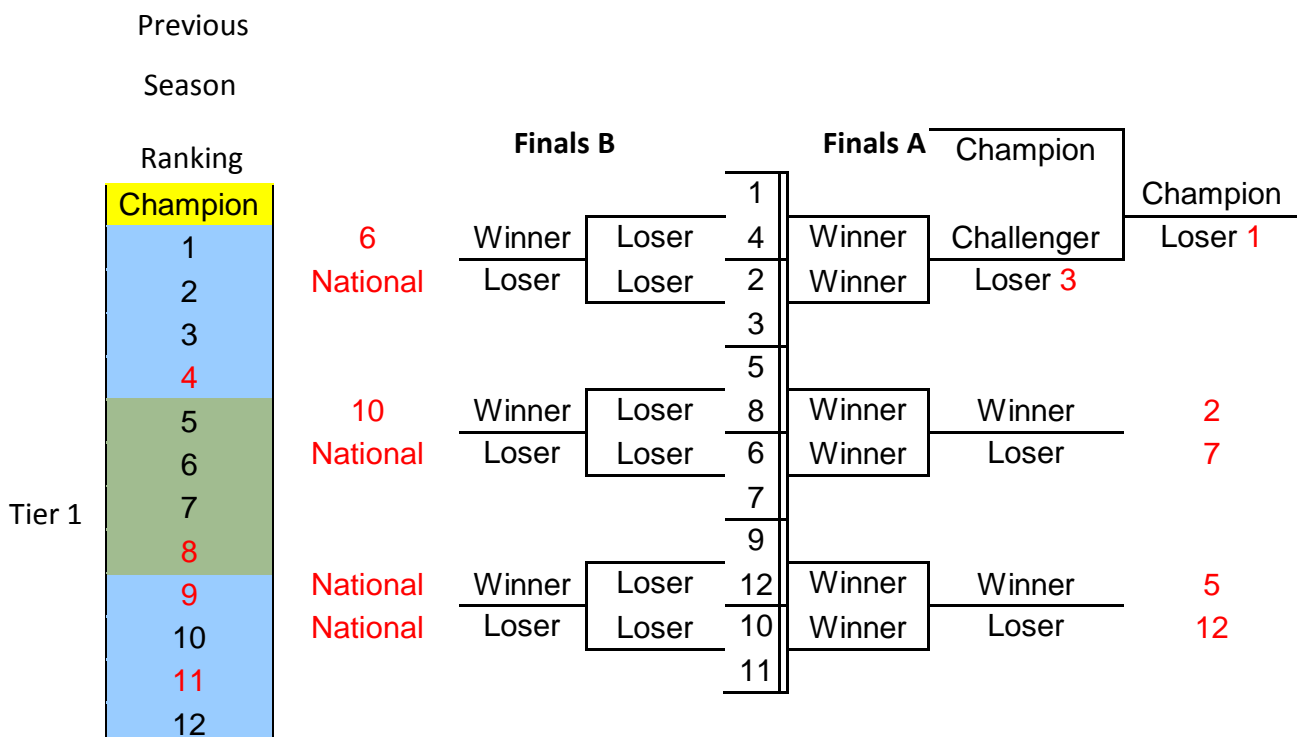

15.2.3.1. In Tier 1, Boxers who have two (2) losses will go down to their National Level in the next Cycle ranking;

15.2.3.2. In Tier 2, Boxers who have two (2) losses will go down to their National Level in the next Cycle ranking;

15.2.3.3. In Tier 3, Boxers who have one (1) loss followed by one (1) win will go to their National Level in the next Cycle ranking;

15.2.3.4. In Tier 3, Boxers who have two (2) losses will go to their National Level in the next Cycle ranking.
